

Waterbury deals with the impact of racism

BY LIVI STANFORD REPUBLICAN-AMERICAN January 14, 2023

WATERBURY, CT. - 11 January 2022-011123SV03-Row houses on Ives Street in Waterbury Wednesday. The Board of Aldermen declared racism a public health crisis in November. The Diversity Committee was tasked with coming forward with recommendations that best address health inequities that minorities face with housing, health and job opportunities. Steven Valenti Republican-American WATERBURY – City and health officials have for years acknowledged structural inequities and barriers to health for minorities living in the city. Late last year, they added official weight to those...
